Larry Wannebo asked when the Manhattan Beach Lodge Liquor Lic. was to be renewed. Barb and Janis answered, June it had changed from January some time ago with the changing of owners. Larry also emailed Paul some conservation information to pass onto the Planning & Zoning Commission.

Planning & Zoning:

Paul stated that their was nothing new with the Planning & Zoning Commission that he was still working on getting them all together to have a quorum for a meeting and that they would not be meeting this Friday. Paul stated that when they can hold a meeting that they will continue to work on the Ordinances.

Unfinished Business:

The Property Landscape/Roof Plan

Paul stated with everything going on he had forgotten to draw a roof plan and apologized, he said he would get it done. This will be put on the next month's agenda.

Janis asked Clyde if he had ever taken care of the tree limb on Northgate Lane, Clyde stated he had not gotten to it and didn't see it the last time he was down there, Paul said he thought it was on the South side of the road, Larry Wannebo said it was on the North side. They all agreed to take another look, maybe someone had already taken care of it.
